Dehonian Spirituality

“Certainly, of all the similar features between the Heart of Jesus and the heart of Francis, the principle one is love for God. Francis’ life was one of prayer and contemplation; he never tired of conversing with the person who was the object of his affections. Above all, he loved to ponder the mysteries of the Incarnation and Passion, which are the most perceptible manifestations of the great love of our Lord for us. Francis had wanted to give his life to Jesus and Jesus gave his for us.”

2024 Dehon Lecture

On October 16, Robert G Kennedy, PhD Professor of Catholic Studies at the University of St Thomas gave this year's Dehon Lecture. Dr. Kennedy's lecture was titled "The Work of the Church is Charity" The lecture explored the implications of this theme in three respects: why charity ought to be the foundation of the Church's work in the world, what this suggests for pastoral ministry in the social arena, and how our perspective on some current issues might be modified if viewed through the lens of charity. Dr. James Stroud, SHSST Associate Professor of Moral Theology was the respondent to Dr. Kennedy's lecture in the afternoon. Both the lecture and Dr. Stroud's response led to fruitful dialogue and a robust Q&A with the SHSST community. To watch the lecture, click the links below:

Lux Center Presentation and Celebration of the Torah

On October 22, Mr. Liran Gerassi, Director of The Lux Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies planned an interactive presentation in celebration of the final Jewish High Holy Day- The Celebration of the Torah. The presentation featured scripture readings, singing, and insights into the Torah, Jewish Holy Days, and traditions. Sacred Heart was honored to welcome Rabbi Joel Alter and Cantor Jeremy Stein from the local Jewish community as the presenters.

It is Sacred Heart's great joy to announce a prestigious award for one of its faculty members. Dr. Caitlyn Trader, Lecturer in Systematic Theology and primary instructor of our propaedeutic classes in the Diocese of Green Bay, has recently been named a Personal Consultations Fellow for the National Catholic Bioethics Center (NCBC). The NCBC (<https://www.ncbcenter.org/>) provides resources for scholars, dioceses, healthcare professionals, priests, and individuals. The Center has a 24/7 ethical consultation service available to those seeking ethical advice, and Dr. Trader's task will be to assist the Consults Department with answering such inquiries. She will also assist in research and donor engagement.

Please join Sacred Heart in congratulating Dr. Trader!
