Dehonian Spirituality

“We are disciples of Christ, whose Heart seems to be more inclined towards the unfortunate classes, and who embraces the small and oppressed with a more tender charity.”

“Effective Communication”: An ECS Workshop

On February 19, Kym Leibham, founder of The Etiquette Academy as well as Director of Adult Faith Formation for Sheboygan Catholic Churches, facilitated a special “Effective Communication” workshop for the English & Culture Studies (ECS) students. This workshop, which was custom-designed for ECS, includes important knowledge and tips regarding communicating and collaborating with women in parish ministry, and understanding cultural and social dynamics. Kym is a graduate of Sacred Heart's Cor Unum program.

"One Jew, No Waiting! Ask Me Anything About My People and Let's Talk!"

Mr. Moshe Katz, a distinguished leader in the Jewish community of Greater Milwaukee, Chairman of the Jewish Community Foundation, and a valued board member of The Lux Center delivered a thought-provoking and engaging talk to the Sacred Heart community on February 19.

Moshe provided insightful background on the differences between Jewish and Catholic beliefs before diving into a dynamic Q&A session titled: "One Jew, No Waiting! Ask Me Anything About My People and Let's Talk!" The open and honest discussion that followed was nothing short of inspiring, sparking meaningful dialogue about the relationship between our faith communities and the opportunities we have to grow in understanding.
